

- The best incentive for sharing the Gospel comes from contemplating it with love, lingering over its pages and reading it with the heart (264)
- Sometimes we are tempted to be that kind of Christian who keeps the Lord's wounds at arm's length (270)
- There is no greater freedom than that of allowing oneself to be guided by the Holy Spirit, renouncing the attempt to plan and control everything to the last details, and instead letting him enlighten, guide and direct us, leading us wherever he wills (280)
- (In Mary) we see that humility and tenderness are not virtues of the weak but of the strong who need not treat others poorly in order to feel important themselves (288)

We were created to celebrate and be messengers of joy in this world, a world which has gradually become obsessed with gloom. Only an experience of Christian peace and joy can counteract this negativity, and this is why the risen Jesus commanded his friends and us to bring peace and joy to others (Mt.28:18-20). This can only be obtained through prayer such as we will hear in the sixth week of Easter: "Grant, almighty God, that we may celebrate with heartfelt devotion, these days of joy, which we keep in honour of the risen Lord"

5th Sunday of Easter

A Spirituality of Joy

"O sing a new song to the Lord, for he has worked wonders, alleluia"

Newsletter Sunday 18th May 2014

Joy, which is the fruit of the Holy Spirit, permeated Jesus' mortal life and transformed the humble, human joys of life into something much deeper: he found joy in the birds of the air (Mt 6:26,28), the flowers of the field, a man finding a treasure (Mt 13:44), a father embracing a son returning from a prodigal life (Lk 15:22-24), a woman bringing a child into the world (Jn. 16:21-22). For Jesus these are spiritual joys of the kingdom of God (Jn. 1:3). He accepted and experienced human joys as a gift from his Father. Can we not do likewise? Pope Francis in his encyclical "The Joy of the Gospel", has comments on joy throughout the document. Below are some of those observations with the paragraph number in brackets:

- There are Christians whose lives seem like Lent without Easter (6)
- An evangelizer must never look like someone who has just come back from a funeral (10)
- Evangelization with joy becomes beauty in the liturgy as part of our daily concern to spread goodness (24)
- The biggest threat ... a grey pragmatism of the daily life of the Church, in which all appears to proceed normally, while in reality faith is wearing down and degenerating into small mindedness (83)
- Our challenge is not so much atheism as the need to respond adequately to many People's thirst for God, lest they try to satisfy it with alienating solutions or a disembodied Jesus who demands nothing of us with regards to others. (89)
- We should appear as joyful messengers of challenging proposals, guardians of the goodness and beauty which shine forth in a life of fidelity to the Gospel (168)
- An authentic faith which is never comfortable or completely personal always involves a deep desire to change to change the world (182)
- (faith) involves working to eliminate the structural causes of poverty and to promote the integral development of the poor, as well as small daily acts of solidarity (188)
- This is why I want a Church which is poor and for the poor. They have much to teach us (198)
- The dignity of the human person and the common good, rank higher than the comfort of those who refuse to renounce their privileges (218)
- Without prolonged moments of adoration, of prayerful encounter with the word, of sincere conversation with the Lord, our work easily becomes meaningless...The Church needs the deep breath of prayer.... The prayerful reading of God's word... and the perpetual adoration of the Eucharist are growing at every level in ecclesial life (262)
- Let us not say that things are harder today; they are simply different (263)

After Mass

It would be a great help if the missalettes could be put back in the trays on the table after Mass or left on the edge of the seat. It looks awful when people coming into the next Mass see leaflets scattered throughout the Church. Also please take the newsletter home with you, even if you have read it. Maybe someone at home might be interested. We do print off enough of them.
THANK YOU

Fifth Sunday of Easter

Jesus is our Way, our Truth and our Life. As the Gospel says, to have eternal life is to believe in him whom God has sent (Jn 5:24; 17:3). This is a reality for us now and it guides our life, in matters great and small. At the core of this reality is trust, that is, the capacity to entrust all that we have and are to the living God and to his Son, raised from the dead. It is not an accident that the verb "I believe" occurs no fewer than ninety-eight times in the Fourth Gospel.

Prayer - Lord God, you gave us Jesus, the Word made flesh as Mediator, and he has spoken your words to us and called us to follow him. He is the way that leads us to you, the truth that sets us free, the life that fills us with gladness.
